

University of Canterbury,
School of Music

presents a concert of

Chamber Music

at the

Nut Point Centre

Saturday, 17 September, 7.30 pm

University of Canterbury performers

Gigi Stevens (violin)
Anna Kiriaev (violin)
Anneliese Westerman (viola)
Nina Hardie (cello)
Fion Law (bass)
Cheena Rea (flute)
Ashleigh Mowbray (oboe)
Tony Ferner (piano)
Mark Menzies (violin, viola, piano)

Programme

introductions

music for strings by Bach, Lully

sonatas and other substances

by Schubert, Bowater, Britten, Bach, and other friends

interlude

three Promenades (1939)

Bohuslav Martinů

newnesses

very recent compositions for violin/viola from University of Canterbury

Open Notebook - Nut-Point September 2106

a guided improvisation coordinated by Mark Menzies, with contribution from the string ensemble

farewell

from the Op 77 Quintet: Scherzo

Antonin Dvořák